Life Guard Positions Available

The CSC has Life Guard Positions open for the 2019 Swim Season. Candidates are required to have current Life Guard Certification to apply. Full and Part-time positions are available.

We are always pleased to have Member Family young people as Guards, but if you know anyone looking for a Life Guard position this summer, please have them contact us.

Contact: CSCpool@aol.com Subject: Life Guard

Membership

Five New Members were proposed at the April meeting: Kevin Cagnetti and Stacy Murray of Ringoes, Amy Randazzo of Lambertville, Tom Tallitsch of Hopewell and Casey McKenna of Lawrence.

These Proposed Members will be voted in at the May Meeting.

Parties at the Club

If you plan to schedule a party at the Club during Swim Season that includes more than 10 people, Please email a note to the CSC to let us know well ahead of time. When there are several parties scheduled for the same day... it allows us to be sure our Life Guard Staff is adequate.

Please send note to:

2019 Work Parties

Come out and help get the Club "Ship-shape" for the upcoming summer season. There's a lot to do and everyone can do something to help. Whatever your skills are, we'll find a task that will suit you! Work parties run from 8am 'til 12noon with lunch provided by the Club. All members working 4 hours come to Family Day for free!

We would like to see all Members come to one Work Party.

Work Parties help keep our Dues down ... Please do your part

Please, Please, Please... Come out to a Work Party

And get to know those Members who keep the club going !!

All Hunters must work one work party to continue hunting.

Sign-up via email to cscpool@aol.com (subject WorkParty) so we know you're coming.
